Proposed Amendments to Advertising Rule

Advertising Rule Amendments

- On November 9, SEC released proposed amendments to the Advertising Rule 206(4)-1
- Boon to adviser business? headache for compliance
- Broadly expands definition of advertisement
  - Includes most communications with prospective and many with existing clients
- Withdrawing no-action letters and related guidance
  - 180 letters (100 of which related to bad actors under solicitation rule)
- Comments due 60 days after publishing in Fed. Register

Definition of Advertisement

- Any communication,
- Disseminated by any means,
- By or on behalf of an investment adviser,
- That offers or promotes the investment adviser's investment advisory services,
- Or that seeks to obtain or retain one or more investment advisory clients,
- Or investors in any pooled investment vehicle advised by the investment adviser

Expanded Scope of Advertisement

- Brings into its scope all online communications
  - i.e., social media
- Includes communications made by affiliates, consultants or employees
  - i.e., private fund info distributed by the private fund or others
  - If adviser takes affirmative steps with respect to content (draft, influence, edit, delete or compensates)
  - Unless not authorized
- Includes communications concerning private funds
  - In addition to 206(4)-8 (concerning fraud & manipulation)

4 Exclusions to Advertisement

- Non-broadcast live oral communications
- Responses to unsolicited requests for information
  - Cannot be solicited by adviser
  - Cannot include additional advertisements
  - 2 Exceptions:
    - Communications to retail persons including performance results
    - Communications that include hypothetical performance
- RIC and BDC advertisements
- Information required for regulatory filings

Similar Anti-Fraud Provisions

- No materially untrue statements, omissions or unsubstantiated claims
  - No guarantees of returns
  - Unsubstantiated claims about adviser or performance
- No cherry picking of specific investment results must be "fair and balanced"
  - Facts and circumstances dependent
  - Allows for thought pieces
  - Allows to describe strategies in certain situations
  - But suggests using prior guidance
- Catch-all for materially misleading info
- As before, only need to show negligence not scienter

Expanded Anti-Fraud Provisions

- No untrue or misleading implications
  - Implications cannot be untrue
  - Facts cannot be true, but stated in misleading way
    - E.g. inferences about adviser or performance
- Must disclose material risks and other limitations when advertising benefits of adviser's services
- Disclosures must be "clear and prominent"
  - Can vary based on medium
  - E.g. okay to redirect a client to an online disclosure, but not to only hyperlink to the disclosure

Testimonials & Endorsements - Allowed

- Broad definitions
- Captures all advertisements containing any:
  - direct or indirect
  - approval, support, recommendation or experience
- Can be by clients or non-clients in connection with adviser's advisory services

How to Use Testimonials & Endorsements?

- Condition: Must disclose:
  - Who gave testimonial/endorsement
  - Whether they were compensated
- Cannot be misleading
  - Rearranging favorable reviews more prominently

Third Party Ratings - Allowed

- Definition:
  - ratings by non-related person who provides such ratings in ordinary course of business
- Condition: Must disclose:
  - Who is providing rating
  - Whether compensated
  - Date rating was made
  - Period of time rating was based on

Third Party Rating - Reasonableness Standard

- Adviser must reasonably believe that questionnaire/survey used makes it equally easy to provide positive and negative ratings
- Not designed to produce a pre-determined result

Testimonials, Endorsements & Ratings

- Generally okay. Examples:
  - Third party platform solicits users to post positive and negative reviews
  - Third party posting public commentary to adviser's website or social media site
  - Use of "like," "share" or "endorse" features on a third-party website or platform
- Unless adviser takes steps to influence reviewers or commentary

Testimonials, Endorsements & Ratings – "On Behalf"

- Social media activity would be considered "by or on behalf of" adviser, if adviser takes affirmative steps to involve itself in content
  - Preparing content
  - Editing or prioritizing content
  - Paying for content

Performance Info - Permitted

- Must include disclosures, so that not misleading
  - Must be tailored
  - Facts and circumstances dependent
- Also, two special disclosures required for "retail investors"
- Retail investor means:
  - Not a qualified purchaser or knowledgeable employee
  - Look-through pool to investor

Non-Retail Advertisements

- To use non-retail advertisements, must adopt procedures reasonably designed to ensure dissemination only to QPs and KEs
- Periodically review adequacy of policy

Performance – Disclosure Requirements

- 2 disclosure requirements for retail clients:
  - If including gross performance, must include net performance
    - What "has or would have been paid" in the case of hypothetical performance
    - Ready to provide schedule of specific fees and expenses that were deducted to calculate net performance (promptly)
    - Present with at least equal prominence
    - Present in format that will aid comparison
    - No required calculation methodology for net performance, although non-exhaustive list of suggested fees and expenses is provided
    - Show each fee and expense as % of AUM
  - Include results across 1, 5 and 10-year periods (or since inception)
    - If 7 years, show 1, 5 and 7 year period
    - Each period must be shown with equal prominence

Net Performance Calculations

- 1) Deduct highest fee that could be charged to a portfolio (easiest); or
- 2) Deduct highest fee that could be charged to relevant audience of advertisement
- Can choose whether to exclude custodian fees paid to bank or other party to safe-keep the assets, unless:
  - Adviser provides custody and charges a separate fee; or
  - Part of single fee paid to adviser such as a wrap program

Related Performance - Permitted

- Must be for "substantially similar" strategies
- Must include all related portfolios, unless advertised performance is no higher than if all related portfolios had been included
- Cannot exclude performance if such exclusion would alter the proposed rule's prescribed time periods
- FINRA does not allow related performance for retail investors
- Can present on portfolio-by-portfolio basis or as composites

Extracted Performance - Permitted

- Allows advisers to extract performance from multi-strategy product to show only specific performance
- Must provide or offer to provide performance results of all investments in portfolio from which performance was extracted (promptly)

Hypothetical Performance - Permitted

- Includes:
  - Backtested performance
    - Excludes educational presentations about historical trends, etc.
  - Representative performance (model portfolios)
  - Target or projected performance
    - Prohibited by FINRA in most cases
    - Tools that review past information are not included as hypotheticals, unless they suggest or imply future returns

Hypothetical Performance – Permitted If....

- Adopts policies reasonably designed to ensure disseminated only to persons for which it is relevant to their:
  - financial situation and
  - investment objectives
  - Prevents general circulation
- Provide sufficient info to understand the: criteria and assumptions in calculating, and risks and limitations of using the info

Portability of Performance - Permitted

- Subject to general misleading prohibitions
- Plus, specific considerations
  - Must have disclosures about different personnel or firm achieved past performance
  - Must have been primarily responsible
  - Strategy must be substantially similar
    - Cannot exclude accounts traded in a substantially similar manner
  - Must include all disclosures so not misleading

Portability of Performance – Requirements (cont.)

- Must include all restrictions on past specific performance
  - May need to apply related and extracted considerations
- Still need books and records to substantiate underlying performance
  - In alternative, asking for comments if using publicly available information and verification/auditing

All – Ads -Review & Approval – Who?

- Requires advertisements be pre-reviewed and approved beforehand
  - By a designated employee to ensure complies with rules
  - Must be "knowledgeable and competent" in the rules
  - Can designate one or more employees
  - Generally part of legal or compliance
  - Not same person that prepared it (if possible)

Review & Approval

- Other requirements:
  - Updates to existing ads would require approval
  - Need to account for expanded definition of advertisement
  - Need to substantially revise policies

Review & Approval

- Does not apply to:
  - Live oral communications
    - If scripted, scripts and slides subject to advanced approval
    - If recorded, subject to approval before redistribution
  - Communications only to a single person or household or single investor in a pooled vehicle
    - Cannot customize a template presentation or mass mailing by filling in investor name or including other basic information about investor

ADV Amendments

- Proposing to amend Item 5 of Part 1A
- Add Section L Advertising Activities to help prepare for exams:
  - Whether ads contain performance results and who reviewed
  - Whether ads contain testimonials, endorsements or thirty party ratings and if compensated
  - Whether ads contain past specific recommendations

Proposed Amendments to Cash Solicitation Rule

Amendments to Cash Solicitation Rule

- Applies to all cash and non-cash compensation
  - directed brokerage
  - sales awards
  - training
  - education
  - refer-a-friend rewards
  - revenue sharing discounted services
- Expands scope to cover solicitations of private fund investors, as opposed to only advisory clients
- Does not apply to RICs or BDCs

Solicitor Disclosure

- Either solicitor or adviser must provide clients with the solicitor disclosure (describes parties, relationship and compensation arrangement)
- Must now also include conflicts of interest
- No longer need confirmation of receipt by client
- No longer needs to be written
  - If not written, oral communication must be recorded

Written Agreement

- Still enter agreement describing solicitation activities and relationship
- Must now list who provides the solicitor disclosure to clients
- Solicitor must undertake to perform its duties consistent with Sections
   201(1), (2) and (4) of the Advisers Act, as opposed to consistent with adviser's instructions

No ADV Brochure Delivery

- Solicitor no longer needs to deliver adviser's ADV brochure to clients
- Duplicative of adviser's duties
- Was a constant deficiency on exams

Solicitor Supervision

- Still required to oversee solicitor solicitation activities
- Still required to have reasonable basis for believing solicitor complied with written agreement
  - Making periodic client inquiries
  - Being copied on client emails

Disqualified Solicitors

- As before, cannot use a disqualified solicitor
- Provides expanded list of disciplinary actions and events

Exemptions

- Proposed rule maintains and creates following exemptions in connection with all or most of above requirements:
  - Solicitors that refer clients solely for impersonal investment advice (not many robo or internet advisers)
  - Solicitors that are an adviser's employees or other affiliates
  - Solicitors that receive de minimis compensation ($100 or less, or equivalent)
  - Solicitors that are not-for-profit
