- Many acts are "ministerial" or "nondiscretionary"
 - Writs of Mandamus / Writs of Prohibition
 - All Writs Act, 28 U.S.C. § 1651, and Federal Rules of Civil Procedure remove need for separate writs on federal level
- If discretionary: injunctive or declaratory relief

Civil Rights / Civil Liberties 42 U.S.C. 1983

- Injunctive Relief: Available for ongoing harms
- Monetary Damages
 - State officials, not states themselves
 - Compensatory
 - Injuries actually suffered
 - Out-of-pocket losses
 - Medical Bills
 - Impairment of Reputation
 - Lost/Diminished Earnings
 - Financial, psychological, or physical injuries
 - Nominal ($1-2)
 - Punitive: Only individuals, not government

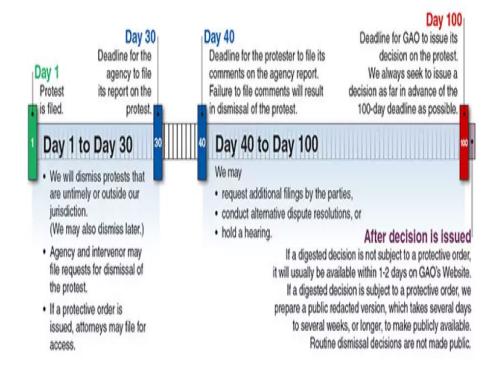

Federal Contract Claims

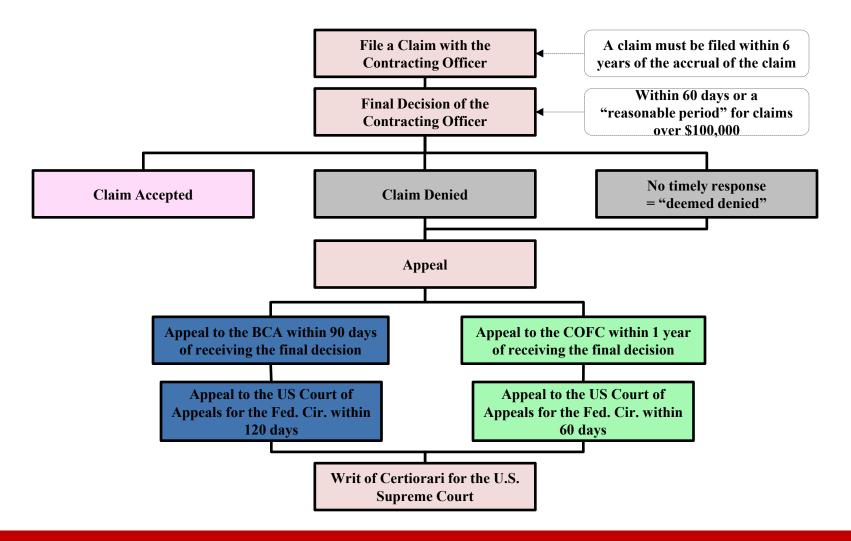

Procurement Problems

- Pre-Award
 - Solicitation Protest
 - Post-Award Debrief
- Bid Protest Forums
 - Agency (FAR 33.103)
 - Government Accountability Office (GAO) (FAR 33.104)
 - Court of Federal Claims (CoFC) (FAR 33.105)
 - Victory doesn't usually mean you get the contract, just that winner doesn't
 - Contract performance paused during protest

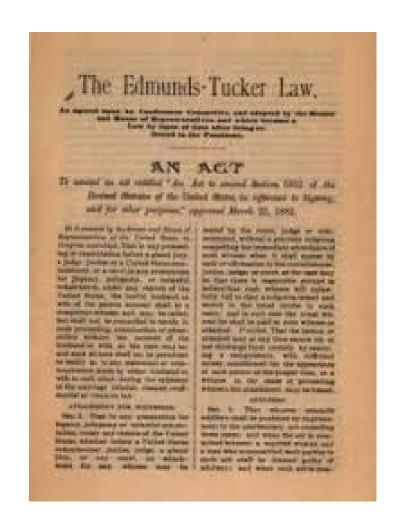

CDA Process Summary

Tucker Act

- 28 USC § 1491 (1887)
- Applies to claims for money damages against the government arising under the constitution, statutes, agency regulations or contracts, other than tort claims.
- 6-year statute of limitations!

The Court of Federal Claims

- Created in 1855 ("Court of Claims") as venue to assert contract claims against government.
- Tucker Act (1887) expanded the court's jurisdiction to most money claims against government
 - Including claims under Constitution
 - But NOT torts
- Court reformulated in 1982 and name changed to Claims Court; then changed to Court of Federal Claims in 1992.

Contract Disputes Act

- Contract Disputes Act of 1978, 41 U.S.C. § 7101 et seq.
- Incorporated into most Federal Government Contracts
- Applies to claims under contracts for goods or services (procurement).

Contract Disputes Act: "Claim"

- Incorporated into contracts through Disputes Clause, FAR 52.233-1.
 - Defines "claim" as "a written demand or written assertion by one of the contracting parties seeking, as a matter of right, the payment of money in a sum certain"
 - Contractor must also expressly request a final decision.

CDA: Claim Certification

For claims over $100,000, contractor must certify:

- The claim is made in good faith;
- The supporting data are accurate and complete to the best of the contractor's knowledge and belief;
- The amount requested accurately reflects the contract adjustment for which the contractor believes the Federal Government is liable; and
- That the certifier is authorized to certify the claim on behalf of the contractor.

CDA: Claim Certification

Penalties for fraudulent claims (41 USC § 7103)

- Daewoo case: Court of Federal Claims (2006)
- "If a contractor is unable to support any part of the claim [due to] misrepresentation of fact or fraud... the contractor is liable to the Federal Government for an amount equal to such unsupported part of the claim plus all of the Federal Government's costs attributable to reviewing the unsupported part of the claim."

CDA: CO Decision

- Claims of $100,000 or less: CO must issue decision within sixty days.
- Claims over $100,000: CO must either issue a decision within sixty days or inform the contractor of when the decision will be issued.

 "Deemed denied": If CO fails to issue decision within reasonable time, contractor may commence an appeal or suit.

CDA: Statute of Limitations

- Claims by a contractor or the Government must be submitted within 6 years of the accrual of a claim.
 FAR 33.206.
 - "Accrual of a claim means the date when all events, that fix the alleged liability of either the Government or the contractor and permit assertion of the claim, were known or should have been known." FAR 33.201.
 - Monetary damages need not have been incurred.
- Time period for filing may be decreased by contract.
